

ENTITLEMENTS OF FOSTER PARENTS

November 1, 2004

INTENT STATEMENT

The Ministry of Children's Services, in partnership with the foster parents of Alberta, is committed to the belief that “all children have an inherent right to a loving and nurturing home environment and a right to belong to a family and know where they came from”.

The intent of this document is to honor the role foster parents play in providing a temporary place a child in care can call home. Foster parents are critical partners in achieving and supporting permanency outcomes for children in care and although the rights of the child placed in a foster home is paramount, respect must be also be given to the entitlements of the foster parents who care for these children. Critical to the success of the permanency planning process is mutual respect and appreciation for each member of the service planning team and the value they bring to the permanency planning process.

PREAMBLE

- WHEREAS Foster Parents provide loving homes enabling children to endure the hardship associated with separation and loss of family; and
- WHEREAS Foster Parents provide safe and loving homes to these children, ensuring their mental, emotional and physical needs are met; and
- WHEREAS Foster Parents demonstrate extraordinary patience and provide support to help these children and their families overcome hardships; and
- WHEREAS By offering the services of one's family, Foster Parents commit to tremendous sacrifice and selflessness; and
- WHEREAS Foster Parenting can be a lifetime commitment to a child or a meaningful commitment to a child during his or her lifetime; and
- WHEREAS Foster Parents' commitment to providing care to Alberta's children is a valuable contribution that is recognized and appreciated by the Province of Alberta; and
- WHEREAS Foster Parents, by assuming responsibility for the care of a child, endeavor to make the child aware of his or her familial, cultural, social and religious heritage; and
- WHEREAS Foster Parents, when caring for an aboriginal child, do consider and respect the child's unique aboriginal culture, heritage, spirituality and traditions and endeavor to preserve the child's cultural identity.
- WHEREAS the ENTITLEMENTS OF FOSTER PARENTS are included in the policy of the Ministry of Children's Services in order to recognize the unique nature of the Foster Parenting relationship and the Foster Parenting community.
- WHEREAS the inclusion of the ENTITLEMENTS OF FOSTER PARENTS in the policy of the Ministry of Children's Services will encourage province-wide uniformity in Foster Care in Alberta.

1. INVOLVEMENT IN DECISION MAKING

(Subject to the laws of the Province of Alberta such as the Child, Youth and Family Enhancement Act)

- (1) Foster parents are entitled to representation and involvement as:
 - (a) members through their Provincial Association, being the Alberta Foster Parent Association (AFPA); and
 - (b) members through their local Associations.
- (2) Foster parents are entitled to involvement as members of the multi-disciplinary decision making team, for the children in their care, and are entitled to actively participate in the decisions affecting the children in their care such as case planning, conferences, reviews, and education planning.
- (3) Foster Parents are entitled to communicate directly with the professionals who work with the children in their care such as teachers, counselors and therapists.

2. SUPPORT

- (1) Foster Parents are entitled to be treated with dignity, respect and consideration in the following matters:
 - (a) acceptance or refusal of a placement;
 - (b) a request for the removal of a child from their home when all other efforts to sustain the placement have been unsuccessful;
 - (c) the maintenance of the day-to-day management, structure and rules of their home subject to the policy of the Ministry of Children's Services;
 - (d) the continuation of their own family values and beliefs, while the Foster Parents also honor the rights, values and beliefs of the foster child;
 - (e) if the return of the child to his or her parents or guardians is not possible and no extended family placements are available or appropriate, consideration should be given first to the foster parents for permanent placement, and to the availability of supports under the Supports for Permanency program that is regulated under the Child, Youth and Family Enhancement Act;

- (f) consideration as the first choice for placement when a former foster child returns into care;
- (g) to support continuity and stability of relationships, foster parents should be considered as a first choice for placement if a sibling of a child already in their home, comes into care;
- (h) adequate supports to ensure their safety and their family's safety, when dealing with a child who is exhibiting at risk behaviors, including the provision of respite care in accordance with policy;
- (i) foster parents are entitled to support to manage loss and separation issues associated with termination of a placement or the death of a child in their care that honors their privacy and if it is in accordance with policy.

3. INFORMATION

- (1) Foster Parents are entitled to disclosure of information pertaining to their foster home and the children in their care, as permitted by present legislation such as the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, and the Child, Youth and Family Enhancement Act:
 - (a) a plan, for children placed in their home within timelines set out in policy;
 - (b) access to written and/or oral recorded information regarding a potential placement (including but not limited to the child's birth family, cultural heritage, health history and behavioural needs). In the case of an emergency placement, the foster parent shall receive the information when it becomes available;
 - (c) timely notification of all meetings and case conferences that foster parents are permitted by policy to attend affecting a child in their home;
 - (d) notification of all decisions pertaining to a child in their care;
 - (e) notification of any court hearings, including the time and location of the hearing in accordance with the Child, Youth and Family Enhancement Act. The Foster Parents acknowledge that the Court may not permit them to attend court hearings;

- (f) timely notice of changes made in the case plan for the care of a child in their care;
- (g) timely updates on all significant information relevant to a child in their care;
- (h) earliest possible notification of the termination of a placement;
- (i) a clear explanation of the expectations for involvement with the child's birth family;
- (j) upon request, access to legislation, policy, procedures, protocols and documents pertaining to fostering.

4. COMPENSATION

- (1) Foster Parents are entitled to receive compensation to provide for the needs of the children in their care.
- (2) Foster Parents are entitled to reimbursement for the following expenses, incurred as a direct result of fostering if in accordance with policy and in such amounts as permitted by policy:
 - (a) all core training related expenses inclusive of meals, mileage, parking, accommodations, and childcare;
 - (b) the consideration of requests for compensation for willful damage by a foster child;
 - (c) pre-approved reimbursement of expenses incurred as a result of the death of a child in care; as outlined in policy;
